

Thomas Carleton Lee Ketchum

1911 - 1913

D.O.B. August 31, 1862 (death certificate)

Birthplace: St. Andrews, Charlotte Co., NB

Family: Parents - Archdeacon William Q. Ketchum & Elizabeth Head

Wife - Margaret Cadman (m. 1892)

Children - James (b. 1893)
- Elizabeth (b. 1895)
- Paul (b. 1896, died at 6 months old)
- Margaret E. (b. 1897)
- Rowena (b. 1903)

Profession: - Worked at a Toronto newspaper
- Started the Dispatch newspaper (Woodstock)
- Lawyer and court stenographer

D.O.D. Feb. 27, 1927

Buried: Anglican Cemetery, Woodstock

Other Notes:

- He wrote two books: A Short History of Carleton County
High Spots in Canadian History
- He represented George Gee at his 1904 murder trial (Gee was hanged).
- He once lived in "Tupper House".